WELCOME MESSAGE BY THE SECRETARY GENERAL – IBBF, WBPF

Dear Athletes, Officials, Fitness Enthusiasts, and Sports Lovers,

It gives me immense pleasure to announce that the 17th Senior Men's and Women's Bodybuilding Championship will be held on March 28 & 29, 2026, at Indore, Madhya Pradesh. This prestigious championship is being organized by Rajya Sharir Saushtav Sanstha, Ujjain, Madhya Pradesh.

This championship serves as a significant platform to celebrate and recognize the relentless hard work, discipline, and dedication of bodybuilders from across the country. The competition will feature 10 weight categories in Men's Bodybuilding and one Open category in Women's Bodybuilding. Athletes will compete for attractive cash prizes totaling ₹15,00,000/-, while the coveted Men's Bodybuilding Overall Champion title carries a grand prize of ₹3,00,000/-, making this championship one of the most awaited events on the year.

I place on record my sincere appreciation to Shri Jitendra Kushwaha, President, Shri Atin Tiwari, Secretary, and Shri Shaileendra Vyas, Treasurer, along with Shri Prem Singh Yadav, Shri Rohit Jethwa, and Mr. Sameer Vyas, for their untiring efforts in bringing this championship to Indore—a city renowned for its rich cultural heritage, historical significance, and natural beauty. Their collective dedication and commitment ensure that this year's championship will truly be a memorable one.

Most importantly, I wish to express our heartfelt gratitude to Datuk Paul Chua, President of WBPF and ABBF, for his guidance and continued support, which has played a pivotal role in shaping and strengthening the Indian Body Builders Federation on the international platform.

I would also like to express my deep gratitude to Shri Swamy Ramesh Kumar, President of IBBF, for his visionary leadership and unwavering support to athletes and officials, which continues to strengthen the federation year after year. I acknowledge with great respect the invaluable contribution of Shri Madhukar Talwalkar, Founder and Ex-President of IBBF, whose lifelong dedication laid the strong foundation of bodybuilding in India. I also extend my sincere appreciation to Shri Premchand Degra, Padma Shri and Arjuna Awardee, whose inspirational journey has left an indelible mark on Indian sports.

I take this opportunity to acknowledge the guidance and legacy of Shri T. V. Pauly and S. Bhaskaran, Arjuna Awardees, whose contributions continue to motivate generations within the bodybuilding fraternity. I am equally grateful to Shri Vikram Rothe, Legal Counsel of IBBF, for his consistent professional support and counsel to the federation. A special note of thanks is due to Ms Hiral Sheth for her valuable contribution to the effective management and smooth functioning of IBBF.

We eagerly look forward to welcoming the finest bodybuilding talent from across the nation to this highly anticipated championship and wish all athletes the very best in their pursuit of excellence.

With warm regards,

Chetan Manohar Pathare
General Secretary
Indian Body Builders Federation (IBBF)

6.13 COMPETITION RULES:AS PER WBPF / IBBF RULE BOOK – COMPETITION ATTIRE & STAGE PRESENTATION FOR ATHLETES

Competition Attire for Athletes: The competition attire must meet the following guidelines:

6.13.1 Men's Bodybuilding competitors will wear one-coloured opaque posing trunks of a solid, non-distracting colour which are clean and decent. The back area of the trunk must cover at least 50 % of the “gluteus maximus”, the front of the trunk must be covered completely, no padding allowed anywhere in the trunk; the side of the trunk must measure at least 1 cm. Pulling and shifting of the trunk by the competitor to reveal a larger part of the front, side or rear of the body is not allowed; the competitor has to ensure that the trunk stays in place during his entire performance and does not slip inside the gluteus muscles to reveal a greater part of that area. Competitors will not wear footwear, glasses (Except if it is justified by the athlete's health condition.), watches, bangles, necklaces, earrings, piercings or whatsoever other jewellery/accessories except for a wedding ring. Props including hats, caps, masks etc. are prohibited. The use of implants whether permanent by cosmetic surgery or temporarily by fluid injection is not allowed and can lead to disqualification. Body-colouring is allowed but the athlete has to make sure that the colour stays on the body and does not come off simply by wiping; air-brush tanning and cabin tanning may be used, sparkles, glitter, shiny metallic pearls or any other unnatural looking enhancements of the body colour are prohibited. Body colouring that stains the competition attire is prohibited.

6.13.2 Women's Bodybuilding competitors will wear one-coloured and decorated opaque two-piece bikini of a solid, non-distracting colour which must conform to accepted standards of taste and decency. The bikini will reveal the abdominal muscles as well as the lower back muscles. The bikini bottom must cover at least 50% of the buttocks. Athletes have to be bare foot, no foot-wear allowed.

The back area of the trunk must cover at least 50 % of the “gluteus maximus”, the front of the trunk must be covered completely, no padding allowed anywhere in the trunk; the side of the trunk must measure at least 1 cm.

Pulling and shifting of the trunk by the competitor to reveal a larger part of the front, side or rear of the body is not allowed; the competitor has to ensure that the trunk and bikini top stays in place during her entire performance and the bikini bottom does not slip inside the gluteus muscles to reveal a greater part of that area.

Padding inside the bikini top is allowed to achieve a more natural feminine look. Breast implants are allowed according to accepted standards of taste and decency.

6.14 JUDGING ATTIRE / JUDGING PANEL

6.14.3 Makeup of the Regular Judging Panel:

Nine/Seven judges are normally appointed by the IBBF Judges Committee to serve on a regular judging panel. Every attempt is made to ensure that all qualified judges who are present at the technical meeting are given the opportunity to serve on a panel and that all states are equally and fairly represented with no state having two or more judges on the same panel. At no time will the number of judges on a panel be fewer than five. The IBBF Judges Committee Chairman/Secretary is the final authority on the makeup of the judging panels.

6.15.2 JUDGING ATTIRE /JUDGING PANEL

Judging Attire: Judges shall be attired as follows:

- a. The official IBBF uniform for male judges at all competitions consists of a pigeon grey suit with the official IBBF crest on the left breast pocket, white shirt with the official IBBF tie, black socks and black dress shoes.
- b. The official IBBF uniform for female judges at all competitions consists of a pigeon grey blazer with the official IBBF crest on the left breast pocket, or white blouse (official IBBF tie optional), grey skirt or dress pants, and black dress shoes.
- c. The IBBF Judges Committee Chairman/Secretary has authority to remove from the panel any judge who is not correctly dressed in the official IBBF uniform.
- d. While working under hot/humid climate conditions and only at the prejudging the IBBF Judges Committee Chairman/Secretary may allow a relaxed dress code as follows: White Polo shirt with IBBF logo on the left breast together with grey dress pants (men or women) or grey skirt (women).
